Fragile Lives : Violence, Power and Solidarity in ... The rich and complex texture of working-class neighborhoods in eighteenth-century Paris comes vibrantly alive in this collage of the experiences of ordinary people--men and women, rich and poor, masters and servants, neighbors and colleagues. Exploring three arenas of conflict and solidarity--the home, the workplace, and the street--Arlette Farge offers the reader an intimate social history. Fragile Lives: Violence, Power, and Solidarity in ... Fragile Lives covers the world of 18th century Paris and the common folk who inhabited it. There are three foci to this within the book. They are, women and children, labor, and crowds/phenomena. All in all this book was really amazing. Fragile Lives â€” Arlette Farge, Carol Shelton | Harvard ... As the author examines interwoven lives as revealed in judicial records, we come to know and understand the criminals and the underworld of the time; the situation of women as lovers, wives, or prostitutes; anxieties about food and drink, and the rules of conduct in a â€œfragileâ€• society.
